Erick: here are both the draft order and attachment A. Let me know if these are clear enough. If you could print and scan the signed order (including Attachment A) and email back to us that would be great.

Thanks,
Dean

Subject: followup on using echo

hi erick - when we last spoke you mentioned that there are some folks at bad river who might want to learn more about navigating around the echo database. we can work on setting that up if you would let us know who might want to attend and what type of connectivity there might be (i think we have skype right now), as viewing the database might be useful during a conference call about how to use it. let dean and me know, thanks, barbara
